Please note this is a multi-lingual site. When editing a page you can currently choose between English (en), French (fr), German (de), Spanish (es) and Portuguese (pt). I can add others as needed. What this means is that if you enter a page in French, someone else can translate it to English (or vice-versa). Depending on your language settings the appropriate page will be returned to match if available.

Enjoyed the conference and meeting you all. See you soon virtually. I've created some forums for us to discuss issues, and the beginnings of some basic structure for the site.

Email me with any ideas).
